COALITION OF THE FUTURE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—The Russ in an editorial inveighs against that section of the Russian press which is proposing an alliance of Russia, Germany and France against what is termed the yellow and Anglo-Saxon peril, economic and political. "Why not," the editorial asks, "follow the example of France and England and boldly undertake to reconcile differences which now seem hopelessly antagonized? Then it would be shown how few they are and what benefit would come from an alliance between us and America against the more grave and common enemy, Germany. This may be the real coalition of the future."

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—A correspondent of the Vostok Vostok states that many of the slightly wounded in the first bombardment of Port Arthur have died as a result of the poisonous gas coming from the Japanese shells. He notes that many of the enemy's projectiles fell near the hospital and adds that it has been determined to evacuate the city hospital at Dally, if that place is bombarded, because of an unwillingness to trust to the humanity of the Japanese.

INDIANS IN WRECK.

Sixty-three Redskins En Route to See the President in Fatal Railway Smash—Three Killed and Over a Score Injured.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WOOD (Ill.) April 7.—Sixty-three Indians from the reservation near Nashville, Neb., in a car en route to Washington to see President, were smashed into ball train, two miles west of Chicago, during a fog. Three in the train instantly killed, three fatally injured and twenty others more or less seriously hurt. Indians who were not pinned in the train fled in panic across the prairie.

The fact that collided were the express and the fast mail on Chicago and Northwestern Railroad. The express train was run into ball train. Both trains were promptly hurried to the scene.

As soon as possible the injured were taken to Maywood and all the victims of the wreck were placed in the hospital.

It was a pitiable sight to see the Indians lying on the ground, clad in their native costumes, with their red blankets dyed deeper by their blood. The men were of splendid physique and the exhibition of calm nerve on the part of Whiteside was a good example of that of the rest of the party.

The dead:

KILL HEAD, skull crushed.

PHILIP THORNTAIL, J.L. body crushed.

THOMAS COMELAST, body crushed.

The injured:

BIG CHIEF WHITEHORSE, body crushed and legs broken; will die.

LUTHER STANDING DEAR, crushed about body and head; will die.

ANNIE GOOSEPACK, crushed about body; will die.

MRS. THOMAS COMELAST, wife of the killed; cut about head and shoulders.

TOMMIE COMELAST, six-year-old son of the dead man; head bumped and believed to have been made temporarily insane from fright.

SAMMY LONEREAR, head cut and body bruised.

ABRAHAM GOODNOW, cut about head.

BLIND EAGLE, cut about head by flying glass.

LITTLE ELK, head cut and bruised.

CHARGE THE ENEMY, head cut and body bruised.

HEAD CHIEF HENRIEL, at the head of the delegation of Indians; severely crushed about the head.

WILLIAM SITTING BULL, son of Chief Sitting Bull, 27 years old; seriously injured.

After the bodies of the dead had been removed from the wreckage and placed in a row on the prairie beside the tracks, an incident probably unparalleled in railroad accidents took place. The uninjured among the Indians gathered about, and led by Chief Sitting Bull, solemnly chanted the Indian death song.

PUEBLO OFFICIALS INDICTED.

PUEBLO (Colo.) April 7.—Eighteen indictments were returned today by the grand jury, which has been in session several weeks. Charles Walker, Alberman, is charged with bribery in one count; John L. Kirland, street Commissioner, is indicted on four counts, and ex-City Clerk W. L. Smith has thirteen charges preferred against him. In the charges against Kirland bribery and false pretenses are alleged, and against Smith, charges of uttering false instruments. Sheriff Beaman has arrested all three men. They were released in $500 bonds each.

MRS. HOWARD GOULD BROKE.

NEW YORK, April 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Lack of $10 with which to pay a fine imposed on her chauffeur delayed Mrs. Howard Gould for more than an hour today after she had started from her home in Fifth avenue to meet her husband. After waiting for some time in front of the courthouse, she was forced to telephone to Gould to hurry to the Harlem Police Court, where he appeared, and secured the chauffeur's release. The chauffeur was arrested for running his machine fifteen miles an hour.

Rev. W. H. Burch, at the annual meeting of the Michigan Council of the Brotherhood of St. Paul, which has just closed its sessions at Detroit, surprised his audience by advocating a system of benefit insurance for the churches. He said that: "It will be a great day for Methodism and for her church societies when a system of benefit insurance is allied to her work of salvation."

Gas, Not a Bomb, Exploded at Barcelona.

King Alfonso's Life Was Not in Danger.

Young Monarch Congratulated on His Escape.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LONDON, April 7.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Julius C. Lay, United States Consul General at Barcelona, telegraphs to the Associated Press as follows:

"An explosion of gas occurred here last night, giving rise to a report that a 'petard' was exploded as King Alfonso was leaving the exhibition. The explosion, however, took place half a mile from where the King was."

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Barcelona says it has been definitely ascertained that the explosion which took place last night when King Alfonso was leaving the exhibition was due to an escape of gas and that no importance is attached to the incident.

KING FRAIER LABOR.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

BARCELONA (Spain) April 7.—King Alfonso, accompanied by Premier Llaurea and War Minister Linarez, started this morning on a round of visits to factories, where he conversed with the working people, praised the labor and declared that one of his greatest desires was to adequately protect the workers. He also visited the workers' quarters, many of which were decorated. Everywhere the King was accorded a most cordial reception.

THE POPE'S CONGRATULATIONS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ROME, April 7.—The news of the alleged attempt on the life of King Alfonso by the explosion of a bomb, as he was leaving the exhibition at Barcelona, produced the deepest impression here, especially among the members of the Spanish colony of Rome, which is quite numerous.

King Victor Emmanuel learned the news while presiding at his weekly conference with the cabinet ministers and he immediately personally telegraphed to the Spanish King his warmest congratulations on his escape.

The Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Merry del Val, when informed of the attempt, hastened with the news to the Pope, who exclaimed: "Poor misguided souls! There is no excuse for their crime."

After then instructed the papal secretary to telegraph the Pontiff's congratulations to King Alfonso on his escape.

RESPECTFUL RECEPTION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LONDON, April 7.—The Spanish Embassy here has not received any information in regard to the alleged attempt made upon the life of King Alfonso at Barcelona.

King Alfonso arrived at Barcelona yesterday for a fortnight's visit to Catalonia. He was accompanied by Premier Llaurea and War Minister Linarez and a numerous suite. The visit of the King to Barcelona, which is the hottest disquiet in Spanish official quarters and it was feared the republicans and Socialists would vent on the King their hatred of the Premier, whose strong measures in dealing with the strike rioters had made him very unpopular. As a preventive measure, large numbers of anarchists and other suspects were arrested last week and a cruiser, three gunboats and a large force of gendarmes were sent to Barcelona.

The Spanish King was accorded a respectful reception at Barcelona and shortly after his arrival attended a Te Deum at the cathedral. The streets were decorated with flags and lined by enormous crowds of people. It was estimated that there were 300,000 persons in the streets and the pressure was so great that the cordons of troops and police were repeatedly broken by the people anxious to see their monarch, and the King was thus separated from his attendants.

HOW ELI GOT THERE.

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Enjoined from Meeting in Cleveland.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CLEVELAND (O.) April 7.—Third Assistant Chief Eli Stevens of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today issued an injunction from Judge Dissett of the Common Pleas Court, temporarily restraining Grand Chief Stone, or other officers of the organization, from holding the annual convention in Cleveland, or any other point aside from Los Angeles.

The latter city was originally chosen as the place for holding this year's convention, but owing to the high transportation rates, a movement was recently started to hold the convention, which meets May 11, in this city.

Stevens says in his petition that at the Norfolk, Va., convention, in 1902, it was decided to hold the next Biennial meeting at Los Angeles. Preparation by the local subdivisions in that district were accordingly commenced for the event and are now well under way. Some time ago, however, the petition continues, the central office at Cleveland was notified by circulars to all the subdivisions in the United States, Canada and Mexico, saying they had experienced great difficulties in making plans for the Los Angeles convention and that it was deemed advisable to change the meeting place to Cleveland, where better facilities could be secured.

Grand Secretary Ingraham of the brotherhood said this afternoon that while there had been some talk of holding the convention at some point in the Middle West as a result of the cost of transportation to Los Angeles, the officers at no time had definitely decided on such a step. He added that as a matter of fact, the delegates would get reduced rates on account of the Methodists General Conference to be held at Los Angeles, commencing May 3, and that as a result the brotherhood convention will definitely be held in that city as originally planned.

COALITION OF THE FUTURE

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—The Russ in an editorial inveighs against that section of the Russian press which is proposing an alliance of Russia, Germany and France against what is termed the yellow and Anglo-Saxon peril, economic and political. "Why not," the editorial asks, "follow the example of France and England and boldly undertake to reconcile differences which now seem hopelessly entangled? Then it would be shown how few they are and what benefit would come from an alliance between Russia and America against the more grave and common enemy, Germany. This may be the real coalition of the future."

POISONOUS JAPANESE SHELLS

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—A correspondent of the Yosteni Vestnik states that many of the slightly wounded in the first bombardment of Port Arthur have died as a result of the poisonous gas coming from the Japanese shells. He notes that many of the enemy's projectiles fell near the hospital and adds that it has been determined to evacuate the city hospital at Dally, if that place is bombarded, because of an unwillingness to trust to the humanity of the Japanese.

content was the work of Bimbo, who had the high average of 117 3-4 for the five games. The low scores of the young monarch can be overlooked, for the WPA, after its first tournament, has and may be able to make the following line, no less than seven four's being scored against them in one game. CUP DEFENDER
FOR SAN DIEGO.

FAST YACHT IS PURCHASED AT DETROIT, MICH.

One of the Flyers of the Great Lakes Secured for Fifteen Hundred Dollars, and Name to be Changed to San Diego — Race Against Coast Clubs.

(BY DIRECT TELETYPE TO THIS TIMES)
RAN, DLEOK. April 7.—[Broadcast]
 Dispatch. By advice of Honolulu, H.
 Peters, now in Chicago, a deal has been closed for the purchase of the yacht Detroit, at Detroit, Mich., as a defender for the Sir Thomas Lipton cup, presented the Corinthian Yacht Club. The purchase price is $100,000, which amount $100,000 is repaid to by popular subscription. The ownership remains vested in a syndicate of twelve men, representing the various local yachting clubs, but in accordance with the terms of the deed of gift the yacht will be placed in the hands of the surprise of the Corinthian Yacht Club
 San Diego, off this harbor, in Aug.

The Detroit is forty-six feet over all, has a net of the kind water line, eleven feet, six-inch beam. Her total sail area is about 1000 square feet and she has three jibs, one main sail, one mizzen and a small spinnaker. The Detroit she is said to be the only boat which has ever beaten the Cadillac, one of the fast boats on the Great Lakes. The Detroit is owned by a young man from Peters, who is to be a member of the syndicate, the chances for San Diego securing a defender for this year are now very doubtful.

Most of the yacht clubs on the coast will compete for the cup.

JACK SULLIVAN GETS DECISION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
KANSAS CITY, (Mo.) April 7.—Jack Sullivan of Boston was given the decision over Hugh Kelly of Chicago to-night at the end of the twentieth round. The fight was very fast. In the eleventh round Sullivan landed a blow to the jaw, and right to the stomach which came near ending the fight, but he still saved Kelly.

JETTS FLANKS ON COAST.
NEW YORK, April 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In speaking of his plans on the Coast, Champman Jetts said to-night:

I will have to get into six weeks time to get into condition when I reach the Coast. I will have to take things very unflinching about the last three weeks in May. Of course, I will do light work in the meantime, and will be able to get into the best of stiff road work and practice. I have trained too long for many of my battles, with the result that I have not been at my best when the day of battle arrived.

action comes from the Bulgarian diplomatic agency here that the Turks have again begun the persecution of the Bulgarian population of Macedonia under the pretext of searching for arms. A Sofia dispatch to a news agency says that orders for the mobilization of the Bulgarian army have been suspended, owing to the fact that the Porte has made a fresh proposal for the settlement of the differences between the two countries. Is it Cruelty?

Chameleon Vendor Arrested With Animals in Possession—Unlawful in the East.

Is it cruelty to animals to chain a chameleon and wear the little lizard-like creatures as an ornament?

This is a question to be decided in Police Court today, when J. V. Harris, a chameleon vendor, is brought up for trial. Harris was arrested on South Main street about 7 o'clock last evening by Officer Zimmer of the humane society and locked up on a charge of cruelty to animals.

Harris only arrived in the city yesterday morning and shortly afterward he began the chameleon business. He disposed of several pairs to foodies and the result of one sale brought him to the attention of the humane society.

A certain fair woman was one of Harris's first customers and when she took her pet to her hotel, the curiosity of the guests was excited. Officer Zimmer happened to see the captive little creature and, after inquiring the address of the vendor, he immediately repaired to South Main street, where he found Harris busily engaged in the disposition of the little crawling animals. The man was locked up in default of $125.

Chameleons have been worn for a number of years by people addicted to fads, but this is the first instance in Los Angeles of an arrest for selling them. It is said that the creatures do not eat in captivity, and that they slowly starve to death. Test cases have been made in several eastern cities, in which the practice of selling or keeping them has been proven cruel.

Harris had sixteen chameleons in his possession when arrested.

YOUNG WIFE'S DEATH.

Sad Journey Before Young Husband of This City With Bride of Seven Months Ago.

A bride of seven months—the sweet girl—wife of E. Clement Wilson—laid her life upon the altar early yesterday morning, and her spirit was wafted into the great beyond.

A strong, athletic, beautiful girl, Mrs. Wilson first became a favorite in musical circles of the city as Miss Emma White, and was a great favorite with the coterie of musicians that rotate about the Mills Club.

Her mother and two sisters live in Massachusetts, and after having spent some time in this city two years ago Miss White returned to her eastern home, and it was just seven months ago that Mr. Wilson went East for the wedding, and returning here with his bride, took up their residence at No. 420 North Grand avenue, where the death of the young wife occurred Wednesday night from peritonitis.

The deceased was a most estimable lady, 28 years of age, was a graduate of Ann Arbor University and a pupil of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

The funeral service will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church, No. 220 South Hill street, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after which the body will be taken directly to the railroad station, and accompanied by the bereaved young husband, will be carried back to Parkboro, Mass., where her mother resides, for burial.

PIANO TALK NUMBER FOUR

How to think how the very large Department Stores—Wanamakers or Marshall Fields—manage to get and keep such a vast volume of trade?

BECAUSE THEY OFFER MORE FOR THE MONEY. The small dealer can possibly give—and remain in business—the same service.

SO IN PIANO SELLING. The reason the vast majority of people look to the Birkel Co. headquarters, is because of the size and prestige of the store—and the high-class of instruments carried.

DON'T BUY A PIANO. However alluring the inflated newspaper statements of small dealers may seem—until you have AT LEAST investigated the advantages offered by the largest Piano House in the Pacific Southwest.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

WEDDING of interest was solemnized last evening at St. John's Church, Rev. L. D. Ridgely officiating, when Miss Gertrude Keller, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Keller of No. 200 West Twenty-sixth street, became the wife of Charles Leland Bagley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bagley, who have been kept very quiet, and the young couple were married in the presence of only a few relatives. Miss Keller is well known as a clever pianist, and as well as an exceedingly pretty girl. She wore a handsome frock of white hand-made lace imported from New York, and carried white hydrangeas. She intends to resume her theatrical career, and has already two offers, which she is considering. Mr. Bagley is a musician and a member of the Symphony Orchestra. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock, and the bride and groom were at home April 11 at No. 2145 West Twenty-sixth street.

Toy's Musical.
Last evening Mrs. Mary A. Toy of No. 20 West Fifty-first street, was the hostess at a musical given in honor of her daughter, Miss Gertrude Keller, who is to be married to Charles Leland Bagley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bagley, who have been kept very quiet, and the young couple were married in the presence of only a few relatives. Miss Keller is well known as a clever pianist, and as well as an exceedingly pretty girl. She wore a handsome frock of white hand-made lace imported from New York, and carried white hydrangeas. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock, and the bride and groom were at home April 11 at No. 2145 West Twenty-sixth street.

Taming of the Shrew.
A number of the pretty girls at Cummock Hall under the direction of the dramatic instructor, Garnett Holman, are in the midst of the bustle and stir of rehearsals for the production of that immortal Shakespearean comedy, the "Taming of the Shrew." They expect to produce it next Friday evening, and are confident of as great success as that which attended the senior play of "Twelfth Night." Several of the young ladies in the cast have appeared in previous Cummock plays, but a few of the intermediate class will come before the stage of even amateur footlights for the first time.

Miss Fern Palmer, who is cast for Petruchio, with her brilliant blonde beauty and graceful, petite figure is almost too pretty for a man's part, but she is brimming with dramatic fire and will give the character in which she appears a spirit and dash which has the promise of genuine talent. This is Miss Palmer's first chance as a principal character to show her ability.

The charming shrew will be played by Mrs. Fred S. Lang, who is a striking brunette type, and snags her dark eyes in truly Katherine style. Mrs. Lang is a special at Cummock and has been heard with great pleasure as a reader in Masonic circles, her husband being a well-known Shiner, but this is her first time.

Spinks, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Stockard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wren; Misses Beatrice and Nellie Gavan, Russell, Weber, Graham and Wood; Messrs. John Murphy, H. C. Osborn, M. B. Butler, Preston Smith, Slosson, F. B. Richards, Porter O. Brubaker; Mrs. S. Gavan, Peterson, Peck, Jaxton, Graham, Abbott, Waterman, Clarke, Hamilton and Fletcher.

Card Party.
Mrs. J. P. Newmark, Mrs. M. A. Newmark and Mrs. Max Goldschmidt gave a card party yesterday afternoon at the Concordia Club, entertaining between fifty and sixty guests.

Under Miss Winifred Walte's direction, beautiful floral effects were achieved. Four long tables accommodating the guests in the dining-room were at the corners. On another table a Dutch basket filled with loosely-bunched shirley poppies in scarlet stood and bright ties of ribbon enhanced the beauty.

A white arrangement of poetical nomenclature in baskets was particularly attractive. Another table was gold and green, jonquils and maidenhair ferns being employed, which was bright with pink sweet peas and maidenhair ferns. On one table an immense center piece of sweet peas was arranged down the middle, with tiny fairy lights glittering in among the loveliness of the flowers, and bows of pink gauze added to the grace. Sprays of maidenhair fern were scattered over the cloth, and great bows of pink ribbon.

Dinner Party.
An evening of two ago, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brewster-Smith entertained at dinner in their new bungalow, No. 2723

RELIGIOUS. GOVERNMENT TAKES HAND.

Will Lead Relics to the Conference in Bond.

Hotel Committee Turns on Light for Doubter.

Faculty Supper at Y.W.C.A. Warning to Girls.

The United States government is taking a hand in the affairs of the Methodist General Conference. The old Chamber of Commerce, at the corner of Fourth and Broadway, this city, has been made a depot for the storage of goods in bond, by order of the Treasury Department, and Secretary Shaw has given his consent to the transference of valuable government relics to Los Angeles.

These relics have been gathered by the United States government from all parts of the world and are now in New York in permanent quarters. They form the most remarkable and valuable collection in this country and have never been shown anywhere, but through the subtle power of some Methodist influence, the authorities have been induced to loan the priceless collection to the great educational exhibit now being installed in the old Chamber of Commerce, and it is this fact that led to making the building a government storehouse.

W. Scott Corlis, who is in charge of the exhibit, left this morning for San Francisco to be gone a few days in connection with new features of the great missionary show. He now proposes to add, if his plans do not miscarry, an Indian room to be in charge of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and Japan and China rooms to be in charge of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. These rooms will be peopled with natives of the races they represent, and in scores of ways will exhibit their handicraft and show the steady progress they have made in civilization.

Nothing deserves to be made clearer to the public than the fact that this great exhibition of all the nations of the world is a splendid, catching affair, in any sense of the word. It will be what it professes to be—an absolutely free exhibition, with a view of educating the general public to the needs of the field in every direction. It will be free at the door—free everywhere, there will be books and books with the real peoples of the earth and all the strange things that come with them from their homelands, but not a nickel's worth can you buy. The only way to get your coin into the coffers of Methodism through this exhibit, will be to have your heart warmed up by what you see and then go home and write your check accordingly.

The only place to spend money in or about the exhibit will be to obtain lunch—and that will be done more as an accommodation than as a money-making proposition. On one of the galleries a lunch booth will be conducted by the women's societies, but the exhibit will in no wise profit by this.

People have been quick to see what a great attraction this exhibit is going to prove, and what a field it seems to present for the presentation of their own or for exploiting various theories, and Mr. Corlis has been almost overwhelmed with applications to get in. His instructions are to turn a deaf ear to everything that knocks at the door, and confine it to what is meant to be the great educational exhibit. Some applications have been of a meritorious character, such as Bible training schools, but these have to be turned down.

The work has grown enormously in the hands of Mr. Corlis, and yesterday he telegraphed to New York for an assistant. While exhibits have been made before, nothing of the Los Angeles magnitude was ever before attempted, and this is a measure due to the magnificent hall he was able to secure. In this connection as well as in all others, he says he has never found the courtesy and generosity of the local conference committee and their friends equalled, and it is his desire to do something worthy of their gifts.

The general plans are being rapidly worked out, and E. Earl Taylor, secretary of the commission, under whose direction the exhibit is made, will be here on April 20, and upon his arrival everything will assume definite shape and be speedily completed. Mr. Taylor is the greatest organizer in Methodism and has been the head of all the great missionary conventions held throughout the country.

Two important collections have just been added and are now on their way to this city. One is a priceless collection of Chinese tapestries, more than 100 years old, the property of a lady in Ontario, Can., and the other is a collection of models of buildings in foreign lands, the property of the Presbyterian Missionary Society, which cannot be duplicated.

DOUBTING THOMAS.
PUT WISE BY CHAIRMAN.

The General Conference Hotel Committee has received a letter from Rev. Dr. F. M. McDowell, secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he expressed a doubt as to the wisdom of Los Angeles to take care of the great crowd of people that promises to be here during the meeting of the conference. S. P. Mulford, chairman of the committee, said yesterday concerning this:

"There are a whole lot of people in the East who imagine that we have a small country town out here, and they are utterly unaware of our facilities in the direction of hotel accommodations. The fact is that we can take care of them easily and do it better than they have ever been cared for before."

"The hotels of the city have been generous in making up special rates for given numbers of people, and many more hotels have been opened since our contracts were signed and they now offer to take hundreds more. The people of the city have no fear on that score. We will care easily, not only for the delegates, but for all their friends."

"Many people are making inquiries for accommodations in private families and we have already placed a number of people in homes. We have many applications for roomers for the people of the city who might be able to accommodate a person or two. If as such will send them word to me at room 701 Trust Building with the number of people they want, they can be easily accommodated and will release the pressure on the hotels to that extent."

"Our committee is holding meetings two or three times a week making assignments, and after our meeting on Monday next we will furnish lists to hotels of the people assigned to them." Rev. G. R. Bryant, the colored minister of the Hotel Committee, has gathered about him a colored committee of fifteen and headquarters have been established at the office of the Enterprise, No. 612 East Fourth street, where some one is constantly in attendance.

The committee meets in Wesley Chapel every Monday night and is in full cooperation with the Conference Hotel Committee. They have arranged to meet all trains and look with the greatest possible degree of care after the interests of arriving colored delegates. Already provision has been made for the accommodation of 150 colored people in private families, and besides all the colored restaurants, contracts have been made with seven restaurants conducted by white people, to cater to the wants of the colored delegates and their friends.

If there was ever any uneasiness on this score it is now all happily removed, and much of the credit for this is due to the energetic services of Mr. Bryant.

COLORED PEOPLE MOVING.
The first event scheduled by the colored people during the conference will be a concert in Elks Hall on the evening of May 6, for which a chorus of fifty picked singers is now being trained. It is expected to be a great musical treat.

A series of lectures has also been arranged by the colored people, but the dates have not yet been announced. These comprise Rev. Dr. I. B. Scott of New Orleans, editor of the Southwest Christian Advocate; Rev. Dr. W. E. Bowen, a professor in Gamman Seminary at Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. Dr. M. B. C. Mason, secretary of the Freedmen's Aid, Cincinnati, O.; Rev. Dr. I. G. Penn, Atlanta, Ga., assistant secretary of the Epworth League; Rev. Dr. E. W. S. Hammond of Nashville, Tenn., a professor in Walden University; Rev. Dr. L. L. Thomas of Baltimore, pastor of the largest colored church in the world.

These men are reputed to be possessed of great eloquence and are the highest type of the race, and they will undoubtedly draw great audiences from among whites as well as colored people.

FACULTY SUPPER.
YOUNG WOMEN—AND OTHERS.

The annual faculty supper of the Young Women's Christian Association was held last night at the rooms of the association, Third and Hill streets. It was a most enjoyable affair, both as to speeches and music, and the latter had the distinction of reaching the tables through the educational channel. It was not prepared in the kitchen, whence come the daily supply of baked beans and vegetables, but in the domestic science department, and portions of it were prepared by the students. It was as follows:

Creamed oysters, toast points, celery, stuffed loin of veal, green peas, mashed potatoes, rolls, coffee, nut-chocolate, water crackers, vanilla cream, strawberry sauce, cake.

After dinner there were speeches under the able direction of Mrs. J. E. Cowles as toastmistress. The responses were as follows: "The Place of the Educational Department," Dr. Rose Bullard; "Supplementary Education for the Business Women," Mrs. Lou V. Chapin; "The Faculty," Mrs. W. J. Washburn; "Present Aspect of Educational Work," Miss Cora L. Tatham; "More Room," Rev. William Horace Day.

The faculty consists of sixteen educational teachers and nine Bible teachers, and Miss Tatham in her speech brought out the fact that the young women have this year been enrolled in the classes. The following persons were present:

REAR OF BEAUTY SHOWS.
At the meeting of the local board of managers of the Young Women's Association yesterday, a motion was passed endorsing the action of the American Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association, expressed in the association's national organ published in Chicago, namely, "That a warning be sent young women everywhere in regard to accepting any kind of positions in St. Louis during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, unless the employers are personally known to the applicant."

The association realizes that many hard, eager young women are looking for opportunities for self-support in St. Louis in order to enjoy the advantages for culture which the fair affords, and hence there is cause for alarm lest some cleverly-worded advertisement attract young women into places of great peril.

her first essay in a purely theatrical line. Pretty, dimpled, Miss Gertrude Coats will make a most winning and coquettish Blanche, and it goes without saying that Miss Cicely Frainger will do wonders with the part of the widow. Miss Edna Reed takes the part of Gremio, and is excellent in it, while Miss Sherman, who took the difficult part of Malvolio in "Twelfth Night," makes an equally good Horatio.

Baptista will be played by Miss Annie Older and Lucio by Miss Fay Maxon. Miss Eva Johnson plays Vincentio. Miss Bea Hunn plays Tranio and Gremio and Curtis are represented by Miss Nina Reed and Miss Louise Bridges, respectively.

Mr. Holman has taken advantage of two opportunities in the play to introduce attractive and graceful old dances which lend an artistic scenic effect that is very taking, and the girls are showing themselves adepts in catching the spirit of this poetic little touch. Altogether the "Taming of the Shrew" promises exceedingly well when one considers the difficulties encountered in having so many male parts taken by girls.

People are making inquiries for accommodations in private families and we have already placed a number of people in homes. We have many applications for roomers for the people of the city who might be able to accommodate a person or two. If as such will send them word to me at room 701 Trust Building with the number of people they want, they can be easily accommodated and will release the pressure on the hotels to that extent.

Our committee is holding meetings two or three times a week making assignments, and after our meeting on Monday next we will furnish lists to hotels of the people assigned to them." Rev. G. R. Bryant, the colored minister of the Hotel Committee, has gathered about him a colored committee of fifteen and headquarters have been established at the office of the Enterprise, No. 612 East Fourth street, where some one is constantly in attendance.

The committee meets in Wesley Chapel every Monday night and is in full cooperation with the Conference Hotel Committee. They have arranged to meet all trains and look with the greatest possible degree of care after the interests of arriving colored delegates. Already provision has been made for the accommodation of 150 colored people in private families, and besides all the colored restaurants, contracts have been made with seven restaurants conducted by white people, to cater to the wants of the colored delegates and their friends.

If there was ever any uneasiness on this score it is now all happily removed, and much of the credit for this is due to the energetic services of Mr. Bryant.

The first event scheduled by the colored people during the conference will be a concert in Elks Hall on the evening of May 6, for which a chorus of fifty picked singers is now being trained. It is expected to be a great musical treat.

A series of lectures has also been arranged by the colored people, but the dates have not yet been announced. These comprise Rev. Dr. I. B. Scott of New Orleans, editor of the Southwest Christian Advocate; Rev. Dr. W. E. Bowen, a professor in Gamman Seminary at Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. Dr. M. B. C. Mason, secretary of the Freedmen's Aid, Cincinnati, O.; Rev. Dr. I. G. Penn, Atlanta, Ga., assistant secretary of the Epworth League; Rev. Dr. E. W. S. Hammond of Nashville, Tenn., a professor in Walden University; Rev. Dr. L. L. Thomas of Baltimore, pastor of the largest colored church in the world.

These men are reputed to be possessed of great eloquence and are the highest type of the race, and they will undoubtedly draw great audiences from among whites as well as colored people.

THEY GOT NO "RED INK."

Redlands Shipper Saved the Growers from Loss.

Induced Them to Hold Their Oranges Back.

Naftager Makes Statement
on Eastern Cuts.

During the past two weeks The Times has made an earnest, thorough and not by any means unsuccessful attempt to shed light on the vexed problem disturbing the orange markets during the present season. Continuing the inquiry, the reporter who has been in the field paid a visit to Redlands and Colton yesterday. The information so gathered is herewith presented. This will end the campaign in the field. The work will be followed, probably tomorrow, with a series of articles summing up results and that by the presentation of matter received from growers and others by mail.

The writers of these communications should not misunderstand if all of their letters do not appear. In the mass of matter necessary to be handled some of the excellent points made in these letters have been covered in one way or another while waiting for room for the letters.

SITUATION AT REDLANDS.
Redlands has occupied a rather unique position in the California orange trade. The exchanges never had much standing there. The growers were organized into associations, which had their own packing-houses and marketed their own fruit in a direct way. Most of it was sold f.o.b. California, and the growers had no more trouble with the crop and no anxiety as to results in eastern markets.

J. E. Ward, president of the Redlands Orange Growers' Association, said yesterday that the Redlands crop all told was estimated at 270 carloads, as an extreme figure. Most of the yield is of navel, and two-thirds of them have been marketed. The remaining are rather overripe. He does not know what the results of the season will be in dollars and cents to the growers. "They will be poor enough," said Mr. Ward. "The quality of the crop is all that could be desired. Most of the Redlands output is sold through the California Citrus Union this year. The individual growers are in no way bound to this organization; the agreement is between the association and the union. The poor results are blameable to no one; the extreme weather is the main cause of all the trouble. The crop is in no sense excessive, and for the first time in its history has been sold at a profit. The Redlands associations went into the union and then into the merger because the market was no other way to move the crop under the circumstances."

H. H. Garstin, the secretary-manager of the Redlands Orange Growers' Association, said first said he did not think newspaper discussion was likely to help the matter. He could not tell before the end of the season what the net results would be. He, however, stated that it was his opinion that the crop could be sold as had been done heretofore, f.o.b. California, at least so far as the Redlands crop goes. As he views it, there is no doubt this crop stands high as to quality and has made a name for itself in the markets of the East. He agrees with Mr. Ward that all the good oranges grown in California can be marketed at a profit under favorable circumstances, and with right methods.

INDEPENDENT FILM.
The Billie Bros. of Chicago do a good deal of independent business in Redlands and elsewhere in Southern California, even this year. The Los Angeles office man, F. H. Edwards, was at Redlands yesterday in conference with E. H. Bryan, the local man there. These gentlemen said that they had been in the California trade for five years. They did not quit this year because of the merger, but kept right on as an independent business. They said they had made what was the only change they had made was that instead of buying most of their fruit out of hand this year they handled nearly all on commission. They have had no trouble to get all the fruit they could handle. They had to refuse a good deal that was offered. During the time of extreme weather East they advised their people to withhold shipments even at the expense of losing some fruit in the orchard. By this conservative course they had saved their people from one line of "red ink" this season.

They had been able to get all the cars they needed from the railroads, and the services had been fairly satisfactory. While they handled the fruit on a straight commission basis they had sold a considerable number of cars f.o.b. California in spite of the situation. They paid their growers $1.40 to $1.50 for holiday fruit, 90 cents for December fruit too late for holidays, and 50 to 75 cents for fruit sent out later than January 1. These went out to the growers. One grower who had 5000 boxes got all of 5000 for his crop. Mr. Edwards, however, the merger growers are not expecting over 15 to 25 cents a box for their fruit. One grower offered an agent fruit and objected to paying a commission of 15 per cent. when the usual rate is 8 per cent.

"Very well," said the eastern man, "I am making three times that money out of agency fruit. You must not blame me."

Mr. Edwards thinks the whole crop could be sold f.o.b. at good prices. The eastern fruit men take no interest in the orange market. Mr. Edwards sees it. They have been shut out too much. The agency men have no money at stake. The business Mr. Butterfield is managing belonged to A. Gregory until this year. The exchange has no control over the fruit sent out from the house this season. It is kept under the charge of the Gregory Fruit Company, until it is sold. The agency agents do the selling under Mr. Butterfield's direction. He said:

"If the growers have a grievance against Mr. Naftager we have no concern in that. I was one of the first to be consulted about the agency. I thought it a good thing, as we handle it. I think so still. I believe every thing is straight and honest in it. If there is crooked work I have never been able to discover it. Our books, letters, dispatches and everything here are open to the shippers of the fruit. The smallest grower can come in here and follow his consignment at every step until it is sold. The growers do come in and what is taking place. Now try to make the public understand. The Southern California Fruit Exchange handles exchange fruit as it sees best. We have nothing to do with it. And the exchange has nothing to do with our fruit. Both are sold by the same agents East, but under orders from separate sources. Mr. Naftager is the president of the agency. The exchange people insisted on that. But I tell you, I do not see how there are any take-offs for any one. I am unable to discern them. The people in the exchange believe heavily in the sales California. They have been always willing to pay a fair price for the fruit here. But the exchange is outside the system and that makes it difficult for outside operators to forecast the market."

The Colton crop amounts to 450 to 500 carloads. A good many are seedlings. At Colton Terrace is one of the oldest orange-growing districts in Southern California. About 200 carloads have been marketed mostly navel. The holiday pool paid growers $1.35 net per box; the January pool $1.40; the February pool $1.45; and the March pool $1.50 net per box. The crop was of excellent quality.

KINNEY'S JURORS.
Abbot Kinney has selected Capt. George J. Mitchell of Pomona, C. W. Brooks of North Pomona and Kenneth Macfarlane of Shasta as his jurors to act at the investigation of A. H. Naftager, on charges made by Mr. Kinney. The trial will take place, probably, early next week.

IMPORTANT, IF TRUE.
A Charter Oak grower seems inclined, perhaps, to prejudice Mr. Kinney's case. He says:

"I am one of the poor, ignorant orange growers; one who have been bamboozled into the association and who being so enlightened by one Abbot Kinney, a grower of town lots. I have heard (but do not vouch for the report) that Mr. Kinney was going to Congress, where he could look after the interests of us unfortunate ranchers. Being a Democrat, he would, of course, try to carry out its policy by seeking to remove the protective tariff on oranges and lemons. Then he would use his increased influence to break down our association and thus contribute to the comfort and contentment of his constituents."

THE OTHER FELLOW.
Who cuts prices? is a vexed question; any one who read the Chaney communication and then reads the subjecting statement of a lot of growers, Mr. Naftager in a letter to The Times, says:

"In The Times of Tuesday morning the 4th inst. you publish a communication from A. U. Chaney of Des Moines, Iowa, charging the California Fruit Agency with having slaughtered prices on oranges. As you no doubt desire both sides of the question we give you a telegram from our Omaha office this date, as follows:

"Chaney Des Moines cutting prices on oranges. Fruit $1.12 per box delivered, navel, extending these prices to Omaha district; four dealers here ask for protection."

"Also from our Des Moines office telegram as follows:

"Todd & Taft admit they have been treated fairly by agency, but had to sell for account of Chaney several cars. Chaney now claims independent shippers lacking him and they are jobbing oranges at $1.50 per box. Present conditions caused by Chaney or independent shippers."

"It should be understood that Mr. Chaney is not a fruit dealer, but a broker, who came to California soliciting consignment accounts when the California Fruit Agency refused to put its Des Moines business under his control."

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.
Simpson Auditorium was filled almost to the doors last night by an audience of music lovers, gathered to hear the concert of the Philharmonic Orchestra and accompanying soloists, given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, as a part of the Star course.

Mrs. Harriet Marie Cropper, soprano, and Harry Barnhart, bass, were the vocal soloists of the evening, and their singing was received with enthusiasm. The orchestra, under the direction of Herr Arnold Krauss, rendered some splendid selections, and the close attention of the large audience was directed to the musicians until the close.

The programme in full was as follows: Overture, "Merry Wives of Windsor," Philharmonic Orchestra; Hungarian song, "Where the Bells Ring," Harry Barnhart; symphony, B minor, and Allegro Moderato, Philharmonic Orchestra; "Twins April" and "Vainka's Song," Miss Harriet Marie Cropper; "The Swan," Harry Barnhart and orchestra; grand fantasia from "Rigoletto," Philharmonic Orchestra; scene and aria, third act of "Faust," Miss Harriet Marie Cropper; waltz, "Vienna Bon Bons," Philharmonic Orchestra.

The name of Miss Lella Fagge appeared on the programme as concert mistress.

On Wednesday evening at Simpson Auditorium, a large and brilliant assemblage gathered for the third concert of the season by the Elsie Club. The programme presented was the most ambitious yet attempted by this organization, and was given with such skill and enthusiasm that the audience was particularly impressed by the grandeur and solitude of the desert, and one can almost feel the hot breath each up from the land and sand, the brow, and see the caravan as it winds its way slowly over the desert. The oriental phases give a touch of color and interest to the programme, and are particularly impressive by David, while on trips through the Orient. The club and the able direction of Mr. Poulin, gave the whole with a dash and vim, mingled with much artistic merit, and care with regard to the score. Mr. Poulin, who was the soloist, was delightful, the sweetness of tone and purity of his voice coming out in the most beautiful manner. Miss Mabel M. Clark, the descriptive reader, gave the scenes with a melodious cadence of voice, which lent itself easily to the meaning of the orchestral accompaniment. Bullard's "Sword of Ferrara" and Brewer's "Break, Break" were also presented with a swing and rhythm, which made them attractive. The orchestra supported the club in this work, two difficult numbers, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes" and "From the Desert," by Daniel Protheroe, a Welsh composer, who is the author of a number of Irish songs of note, were given, with delicate shading and fine ensemble. The club's best work was shown here, and the artistic quality was high. Massine's "Phedre" and Massé's music to "L'Arlesienne" were especially well rendered.

H. M. Knapp, a produce dealer, who has been doing business in the City Market, Central avenue and Third street, mysteriously disappeared early yesterday morning, thereby causing considerable embarrassment during the day for his brother, S. E. Knapp, president of the Knapp Fruit Company, doing business in the same market, although there is said to be no business connection between the two.

When the word was passed in the morning that "Knapp had skipped," wholesale produce men of the city began to make anxious inquiries at the market, and when they found that it was H. M. Knapp who had disappeared, they also found that they were "left in the lurch" on a number of bills which Knapp had failed to settle.

H. M. Knapp appeared at the market early yesterday morning and opened up for business as usual, but proceeded to sell out his entire stock for what he could get for it in the lump, also disposing of his stall privileges. This fact was ascertained later in the day, when his absence began to be noted, and his brother started out to make inquiries.

A visit to the house owned by H. M. Knapp and his wife on Arapahoe street, and when they found the fact that both he and his wife had departed, bag and baggage. Knapp's financial obligations among wholesale produce houses are said to amount to about $2000. Besides, he overdraw his account at the German-American Savings Bank. This, it develops, he was forced to refund to the bank yesterday, but he gave several over-drafts in payment for goods, which have been returned to the bank, and are still outstanding.

A. E. Knapp states that the only motive for his brother's disappearance was his desire to escape his creditors, who he can call to mind is his charge over his financial tribulations. He says, however, that his brother was doing a business of from $500 to $1000 a month, and left about $500 of unpaid accounts due, which he might easily have collected.

H. M. Knapp came here from San Diego less than a year ago. He is about 45 years of age, a little under medium height, slender, with blue eyes and brown mustache.

No trace of either the erstwhile produce merchant or his wife could be found yesterday. Inquiry at the Wholesalers' Board of Trade developed the fact that a man had been started off on the afternoon train for San Diego in search of Knapp, who is supposed to have headed that way with the proceeds of his sudden morning sale, possibly with the intention of crossing the line into Mexico. The search will be made in the interests of the creditors, in the hope of arriving at a settlement with him. An examination of the Knapp place on Arapahoe street by a representative of the board developed the fact that all the furniture of the house had been carefully packed in sacks and stored in the barn, and was addressed to San Diego, in the wife's name, as if ready to be shipped.

in Police Court, Arrested on Attachment Warrant.

Charles O. Luce and his wife, Edith Luce, were arrested last night on an attachment warrant from Justice Chambers' court, and the former is held in the City Jail in default of $200 bail. Mrs. Luce was released on a deposit of $200 and she is trying to raise a like amount to get her husband out. Luce and his wife were arrested Tuesday night on complaint of J. H. Swain, who alleges Luce attacked him in Main and Fourth streets. According to Swain's story, Luce pounded him while Mrs. Luce bit him severely. When arrested Luce was demanded, and after depositing this amount the Luces failed to appear in court. Later Swain made known to the court the ferocity of the attack. Swain says he will prefer a charge of mayhem against Mrs. Luce in addition to that of assault.

STEAMSHIPS QUIT LEMON BUSINESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 7.—[Exclusive dispatch.] A report from Italy reaches that an agreement has been reached between the importers of lemons and the steamship companies under which the latter shall not appreciate lemons and the former shall limit cargoes to 100 tons. The two important points in the agreement are the limitation of the steamship companies to 100 tons and the limitation of the importers to 100 tons. The agreement is a result of the fact that the steamship companies have been losing money in the lemon business and the importers have been losing money in the lemon business. The agreement is a result of the fact that the steamship companies have been losing money in the lemon business and the importers have been losing money in the lemon business.
